Kenſington, June 18.

THE following Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, having been tranſmitted by his Excellency Thomas Earl of Wharton, Lord-Lieutenant of that Kingdom, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Boyle.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return our moſt humble Thanks for your Majeſty's moſt Gracious Anſwer to our late Addreſs; and as your Majeſty has been pleaſed, in your great Goodneſs to aſſure us of your conſtant Concern for the Welfare of this Kingdom; we do in the moſt humble manner renew our Aſſurances of our utmoſt Zeal for your Majeſty's moſt Sacred Perſon and Government, and of our entire Satisfaction in that juſt and wiſe Adminiſtration, from whence we derive ſo many Bleſſings.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Bruſſels, June 25. N. S. Advices from the Frontiers ſay, that the Enemy having paſſed the Scarpe, advanced with the Right Wing within Cannon-ſhot of Count Tilly's Quarters, but the Inundation rendred it impracticable to attempt any thing on that ſide. Their Army is ſtill extended from the Heights of St. Laurent near Arras to Oiſie. Mareſchal Villars hath ſent ſtrong Reinforcements into all the Frontier Towns. Letters from Paris of the 20th ſay, that great Preparations were making for the Marriage of the Duke of Berry with the Dutcheſs of Orleans, and it was believed theſe Nuptials would be ſolemnized before the Court removed to Marli. They write from Spain, that the Armies in Eſtramadura were preparing to go into Quarters of Refreſhment, and that nothing conſiderable had happened on the Frontiers of Catalonia. Marſhal Staremberg continued encamped near Balaguer, and the Duke of Anjou on the other ſide of the Segra near Lerida.

Ghent, June 25. N. S. The Extraordinary Deputies from the States General, who went to Tournay to concert with the Duke of Marlborough ſome Affairs relating to theſe Provinces, returned from thence on the 23d, and have ſince held ſeveral Conferences with the Council of State. Lieutenant-General Cadogan is alſo come hither, but intends to return within two or three days to the Army. Letters from the Camp before Douay of yeſterday bring us Advice, that the Beſiegers had entirely poſſeſſed themſelves of the two Ravelins at the Left Attack, and of one at the Right; that they had erected a Battery of three Pieces of Cannon on one of thoſe Ravelins, and had enlarged the Breach of the Rampart, which was ſo wide, that Preparations were making to fill up the great Ditch, in order to give the general Aſſault, if the Beſieged ſhould not think fit to ſurrender without coming to that Extremity. Theſe Letters add, that the Beſiegers had taken a Boat laden with Powder, which was ſent from Fort d'Eſcarpe for the Relief of the Town, and had poſſeſſed themſelves of two ſmall Redoubts between that Fort and Douay whereby they are able wholly to prevent their Communication with the Town.

Dublin, June 10. On the 6th Inſtant the Heads of ſeveral Bills were, purſuant to Order, preſented to the Houſe, and committed. Leave was given for bringing in the Heads of a Bill for the Eaſe of her Majeſty's Subjects in the Payment of their Quit-Rents, Crown-Rents, and Compoſition-Rents. It was unanimouſly reſolved, that the tendring the Oath of Abjuration to Perſons diſaffected to her Majeſty's Government, hath been a publick Service to this Kingdom. After which Mr. Maxwell reported from the Committee appointed to inſpect the Publick Accounts of the Nation, that they had examined the Matters to them referred, the State whereof were contained in a Paper, which he delivered in at the Table; which Report was to this Effect: That it appears by the Accounts of the Accomptant-General, that the Ballance due to the Nation at Midſummer 1709, amounting to 71019 l. 1 s. 5 d. 2 q. has been duly credited to the Publick; that the whole Produce of the Revenue and Additional Duties, and the Charge of the Publick, being alſo carried on from Midſummer 1709, to Midſummer 1710, by Abſtracts and Computations that appeared reaſonable to the Committee, the Balance due to the Nation at Midſummer 1710, over and above the Sums charged to the Publick, will amount to 11547 l. 7 s. 11 d. 1 q. without including ſeveral Charges which her Majeſty had directed to be paid on the Application of the Houſe; that it appeared by her Majeſty's Warrant that 31850 l. 5 s. 6 d. is appointed for building an Arſenal near Dublin, of which Sum 15000 l. is only to be paid in the firſt Year, and of that 5000 l. is already charged to the Publick in the general State of the National Account; that 24000 l. is to be paid out of the Revenues for the Support of the Palatines, of which 7831 l. 13 s. 6 d. has been already charged, and the remaining Sum is to be paid at the Rate of 8000 l. a Year; that her Majeſty had been graciouſly pleaſed to ſignify to his Excellency the Lord-Lieutenant, her Royal Intention to grant the College 5000 l. according to the Addreſs of the Houſe; that 25000 Firelocks, with a ſuitable proportion of Ammunition and Warlike Stores, which are thought proper for the Service of this Nation, would amount to 73092 l. and that Mr. Secretary Addiſon and the Engineer General informed the Committee, that her Majeſty has directed one half thereof to be provided this Year, and the remainder in the next Year. This Report, and the Papers relating thereunto, were referred to the Committee of the whole Houſe, appointed to take into Conſideration the Supply granted to her Majeſty, and alſo his Excellency the Lord-Lieutenant's Speech: After which the Houſe took the ſame into Conſideration, and came to the following Reſolutions, which were reported on the 7th Inſtant. Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that a Supply be granted to her Majeſty, towards the enabling her Majeſty to make good the ſeveral Applications made to her by this Houſe the laſt Seſſion of Parliament. Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Supply granted to her
